

Get to know more about Ivett Avila!

What are the most memorable stories that you can think of in your time playing handball?

Ivett Avila: During my time playing handball, the most memorable would definitely have to be winning my first tournament and winning my first PSAL game.

What interested you in playing handball?

Ivett Avila: I started playing handball mainly because of my friends. I'm with them most of the time and they always played handball, so I thought why not give it a try.

What was your experience like playing in different tournaments?

Ivett Avila: ICHA tournaments and other tournaments were fun, but they also made me really nervous because I wanted to do the best that I could.

What are your past handball achievements?

Ivett Avila: My most recent handball achievements were winning first place during the USHA Junior National One-Wall Small Ball Handball Championships (Co-Sponsored by ICHA), the Play Handball for the Cure Speaker's Cup Tournament, and the USHA/ICHA Junior Big Blue Nationals/Adult Singles Championship.

If you could describe handball in 3 words, what would it be and why?

Ivett Avila: Handball is competitive, strategic, and entertaining, but handball is too complicated of a sport to describe just in three words.
