

Dear Friends and Supporters,

My name is Cesar Sala and I am the new President of the Inner City Handball Association. I have been a part of the ICHA for over 26 years as a player, coach, referee, sponsor and board member. I am honored to continue in the footsteps of Paul Williams, the founding President of the ICHA. I'm excited about the opportunity to continue Paul's work. The ICHA has been such a positive influence in my life.

The first handball event I ever entered was run by the ICHA! What I appreciated the most was getting to know people from all different walks of life. As a kid at the time, it brought a sense of balance that I needed more than ever. It kept me off the streets and involved in something that would give me years of memories and experience. As the new president, I look forward to growing our community even more.

This year, we are expanding our memberships in an effort to reach more of our youth. We will continue to run quality clinics with our current volunteers. We are in need of new volunteers that we hope to recruit during our 2019 season. We will be offering mentoring to the current youth members of the organization as well as our future members. Our association has successfully provided over two and a half decades of guidance and opportunities to the youth of our sport and many of them have grown into exemplary adults.

With continued support over the years, the ICHA has fulfilled its mission in providing a creative, safe and inexpensive outlet to our inner city kids by combining athletics and academics. Our volunteer efforts and donations have been instrumental in this success. We will continue improving the organization while preserving the core foundation of our association: to provide a safe environment for our youth.

Together, we will continue to flourish as a community of handballers. Our youth will have the ICHA working hard to give them the tools they need to succeed in the future. And I look forward to doing my part in making that happen. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Cesar Sala
President
